MEMORANDUM

In an effort to minimize duplicate arguments and other unnecessary duplication, Plaintiffs are filing a Consolidated Memorandum that responds to the four Memoranda Defendant submitted in support of its separate motions for summary judgment as to each Plaintiff.

The total number of pages of Plaintiffs' Consolidated Memoranda is 68, which is comparable to the total of 81 pages in Defendant's four Memoranda filed with this Court.

The summary described in Local Rule 7.2(3) should not be necessary, given that Plaintiffs are simply consolidating what would have been four separate memoranda of 20 pages or less each. The table of contents in the Consolidated Memoranda should suffice.

Thus, for good cause shown, Plaintiffs respectfully request that this Court grant Plaintiffs' Motion.

Respectfully submitted,

s/Barry V. Frederick
